Observance of Rules

It is hoped that your trip is wonderful.

Guests are requested to observe the following rules established by the hotel according to article 11 of the Provisions Governing Accommodation Agreements to keep public order and morals. The hotel may reject the continued occupancy of room if the guest does not observe these rules according to article 12.

1. The use of any apparatus for heating or cooking is prohibited in a room or gallery.
2. No smoking in bed or in any places which may cause a fire.
3. Any act in a manner against social moral is prohibited including singing loudly or making a great noise in any place in the hotel.
4. The following are prohibited to be brought or kept in the hotel.
   (a) Pet animals or birds.
   (b) Bad-smelling materials.
   (c) A great deal of luggage too bulky to be handled or accommodated.
   (d) Materials liable to cause combustion or ignition such as Gunpowder or benzine.
   (e) Guns, swords or any other arms prohibited by law.
5. Any act in a manner against public order or law such as gambling is prohibited.
6. Entry into the room by visitors or the use of properties provided in the room without permission is prohibited.
7. The use of the room or lobby as business premises is prohibited.
8. The use of the services and equipment of the room and gallery is confined to that for the purpose as stated.
9. Any service or equipments in the hotel shall not be moved or taken out of the hotel.
10. The services and equipment in the hotel shall not be changed or spoiled by attaching anything onto them.
11. Avoid putting anything in the window as the appearance of the hotel may be spoiled.
12. Any act of advertising or soliciting is prohibited within the premises of the hotel.
13. Avoid leaving personal effects in the gallery or lobby.
14. Delivery of dishes from outside the hotel is prohibited.
15. In regard to personal effects left behind or clothes placed in the laundry service, will be responsible for this safekeeping within 6 months after the date of departure, unless otherwise designated.